Giants Seat Scout Camp Site

Terms and conditions 2025

Booking Procedures and Payment

1) No booking will be deemed confirmed until Giant's Seat Scout Camp Site received:
   - The completed booking form
   - The deposit has been received and confirmed by email from giantsseat.bookings@prawscouts.org.uk

2) The balance of all fees due must be paid 14 days prior to the commencement of the event (unless otherwise agreed with the Camp Site team)

3) If a booking is accepted less than one month prior to the event date, all fees including deposits are payable immediately on booking.

4) Payments are preferred via bank transfer to the account information detailed on your booking confirmation.

5) Deposits paid are not refundable in the following circumstances
   a. Cancellation of the event by the customer less than four weeks prior to the event
   b. The Camp Site and/or Toilet Block and/or Martin Lodge not being left in a clean and tidy state. Please note that additional charges may be payable by the client if deemed necessary.
   c. To cover the cost of any damage caused by the customer or those involved in their event. The customer should also agree to pay any such costs in excess of deposit.

Campsite access

1) All areas within the campsite to which the customer has been granted access (except those areas cordoned off and marked as such), including agreed access times are included within the confirmation email.

Customer Responsibility

1) The customer will be held responsible and liable and must indemnify Giant's Seat Campsite in respect of any damage, theft and loss caused to the campsite and its contents, by the customer or those attending the event (whether paid contractors or participants). The responsibility does not extend to members of The Scouts or to contractors employed by Giant's Seat Scout Camp Site to assist with the event.

2) The customer will be held responsible, upon completion of the event, for the cleaning of the campsite area and/or toilet block and/or Martin Lodge. All rubbish should be burned or removed from the campsite by the customer. There are no rubbish collections from the site – please take your rubbish home.

3) Under no circumstances are animals allowed onto the campsite except for registered assistance dogs.

4) Giant's Seat Scout Campsite DO NOT have a licence to show films etc, from DVD's or computers. Any booking wanting to show films must obtain their own licence and make a copy available to giantsseat.bookings@prawscouts.org.uk

5) Any event which required a Temporary Events Notification (TEN Form) must be approved by the campsite team prior to be sent to Bolton Council for consideration.

6) Please respect the campsite's Non-Smoking Policy

7) All emergencies should be reported immediately if relevant or as soon as practicable to the emergency number provided on your booking confirmation.

Liability and Indemnity

1) To the fullest extent of the law, Giant's Seat Scout Campsite shall not be liable for any loss or damage to the property of the customer and their participants, or any inconvenience or loss caused to any party because of cancellation or termination under this agreement.

2) Appropriate insurance cover must be provided by the Customer to indemnify the campsite against claims which may be made against it in respect of loss, or damage that the campsite may suffer. Such insurance should also cover the risk of
    a. Bodily injury or death to the customer, guests, contractors, agents or licensees and members of the event group or any third parties.

   and will, if required, provide these to the giantsseat.bookings@prawscouts.org.uk email address.

3) The customer will conduct risk assessments in respect of their event and will, if required, provide these to the giantsseat.bookings@prawscouts.org.uk email address.

4) Any losses incurred due to property found to be missing or damaged will be charged to the customer.

5) Rules, regulations and technical advice, or other requests reasonably made during the running of the event by any member of the Camp Site team should be adhered to.
